28 January 1956

REPORT ON THE SECOND DAY OF THE MEETING OF THE POLITICAL CONSULTATIVE COMMITTEE

The second session of the Political Consultative Committee of the Warsaw Treaty member-countries took place on January 28, 1956, in Prague.

The participants in the session continued to discuss issues and joint activities deriving from the Warsaw Treaty. First Deputy Chairman of the Council of Ministers and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the USSR V. M. Molotov and Minister of Foreign Affairs of Czechoslovakia V. David gave speeches. Deputy Chairman of the State Defense Committee Marshall Chen Yun, attending the session as an observer, also made a speech.

The participants in the session unanimously adopted the declaration of the Warsaw Treaty on Friendship, Cooperation, and Mutual Assistance Member-States.

The signing of the declaration will take place tonight, at 19.00 in the Waldstein Palace in Prague.

Additionally, it was decided to publish a final communiqué from the sessions of the Political Consultative Committee.
