

UNITED STATES DELEGATION
TO THE
NORTH ATLANTIC COUNCIL

Special Group
3-1-02 B (Sp. Gr.)

OTAN-NATO
PLACE DU MARECHAL DE LATTRE DE TASSIGNY
March 6, 1967
PARIS, FRANCE

NATO CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Colleague:

At this morning's meeting of the Special Group which is charged with the Future of the Alliance Study, the Secretary General asked Ambassador Cleveland if he would circulate a list of suggested items for study which he had mentioned during his intervention. Accordingly, I am attaching two copies of this list, which I hope your delegation will find of interest.

Sincerely,

Stephen T. Johnson
Secretary of Delegation

The Lord Coleridge, Executive Secretary
Secretaries of Delegations

NATO UNCLASSIFIED AND PUBLIC DISCLOSED

NATO CONFIDENTIAL

FUTURE OF THE ALLIANCE STUDY

PHASE I - ANALYSIS OF EVENTS

- A. Developments in Western Europe and the North Atlantic Area.
- B. Developments in the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe, with Consequent Opportunities in East-West Relations.
- C. External Factors bearing on the Alliance.
- D. Political Significance of the Military Situation.
- E. Public Attitudes towards NATO's Tasks.

U.S. Delegation

March 6, 1967

NATO CONFIDENTIAL