

Report from the Chief of the Bulgarian General Staff, for free military aid delivery to

PDR Yemen, 3 May 1979

[Source: Central State Archive, Sofia, Fond 136, Record 86, File 880, p. 4-4a]

Declassified as of 10.06.2004 On the grounds of Article 34, § 1 and 3 of the Law for protection of the classified information

Secret

Copy

TO THE PRIME MINISTER
COMRADE STANKO TODOROV

R E P O R T

From the First Deputy Minister of people's defense and Chief of the General staff of Bulgarian armed forces, Colonel-General Atanas Semerdjiev

REFERENCE: Rendering free aid to the People's Democratic Republic of South Yemen

COMRADE PRIME MINISTER,

In conformity with the carried out negotiations between governmental delegations of PR of Bulgaria and PDR of South Yemen, we suggest, after coordination with the State planning committee, to deliver free aid of arms and ammunition at amount of 494 000 leva to PDR of South Yemen.

On the grounds of the agreement and signed documents,

I SUGGEST:

1. To render the People's Democratic Republic of Yemen free aid – military-technical equipment at the amount of 494 000 leva, as per Appendices 1 and 2.

2. To task the respective authorities to deliver the equipment by the end of 1980, to replenish the stocks of equipment of the Ministry of defense, and to provide necessary funds for transportation in-country and out of the country.

First Deputy Minister of people's defense and Chief of the General staff of Bulgarian armed forces

Colonel-General Atanas Semerdjiev

3.5.79

No. G-00447/20.4.1979

[Translated by Greta Keremidchieva]